

Bakeman's 3rd International Language League
(Sample Question)

Language: English

Category: Wall Magazine

Marks Distribution:

Total: 100%

Presentation: 30%

Aesthetics: 30%

Context: 20%

Authenticity: 20%

Note: The following marks distribution applies to the Divisional and Semi-Final rounds only. In the Final round, the adjudicators will assess the wall magazine by asking each team with a series of questions about their theme and topic. This assessment process will determine the overall rankings and winners of the competition.

Guidelines:

- Participants must select a specific topic within the chosen theme. For instance, if your team opts for "Influential Figures," select a prominent individual like 'Nelson Mandela' as the subject of your work. The chosen topic must be related to the main theme.
- The Wall Magazine must contain images and texts. This may include anecdotes, short poems, sayings, proverbs, and quotations.
- Each team will have a 3-minute slot to deliver presentation on their Wall Magazine to the adjudicators.
- Be prepared to answer potential questions about your magazine's content.
- The unity and teamwork within each team will also be evaluated during the judging process.

Sample Theme:

- Influential Figures in History
- The Global Landscape During Various Crises
- Gender discrimination and Gender Equality

Samples:

